Critical Illness means any of the critical illnesses/ conditions or surgeries listed in the annexure to this CI Rider.

Pre-existing Medical Condition means any condition, ailment or injury for which Life Insured had signs or symptoms, and / or was diagnosed, and / or received medical advice / treatment, within 48 months prior to the issuance of first CI Rider by the Company to the Life Insured

Section Two: Inception and Termination of the Coverage

This CI Rider becomes effective on the Coverage Commencement Date and shall terminate on the occurrence of the happening of the first of any of the following:

- a. The Coverage Expiry Date of the CI Rider specified in the Schedule
- b. The date of any payment made under Section Three.
- c. The Policy Anniversary immediately following the receipt of a written cancellation request of the CI Rider provided that such written request for cancellation is received within 15 days before such Policy Anniversary.
- d. On termination of the Base Policy to which this rider will be attached.
- e. The date of the death of the Life Insured.
- f. The Policy Anniversary coinciding with or immediately following the Life Insured attaining 65 years of age

Section Three: Risk Covered

If, while this CI Rider is in force, the Life Insured is diagnosed by a registered medical practitioner (including a specialist acceptable to the Company, with costs for the same to be borne entirely by the Policyholder), to be suffering from a Critical Illness and the Life Insured survives a period of 30 days (or such other survival period as set out in the Annexure to this Rider) after the diagnosis of the specified Critical Illness, the Company will pay the Coverage Sum Assured to the Policyholder.

Any payment under this CI Rider is in addition to any amounts payable under the Base Policy or any other Riders in force at the time the Critical Illness is diagnosed.

The Company shall not entertain any claim under this CI Rider for a Critical Illness occurring during the period of 90 days from the Coverage Commencement Date or the date of revival of this CI Rider.

Section Four: Notice and payment of Coverage of the Life Insured

It is a condition precedent to the Company's liability to make any payment under this CI Rider that:

- a) The Company is informed of the claim in writing without delay, and in any event within 30 days of the occurrence giving rise to such claim.
- b) The Company is satisfied that a claim is payable and the Company has received all documentation and information requested, including but not limited to:
 - All past and current medical/ hospital records including admission notes, test records, discharge summaries (where applicable)
 - The original Policy Document

Section Five: Changes in the Coverage Sum Assured

The Policyholder may request an increase in the Coverage Sum Assured under this CI Rider. The Company may limit the amount of the increase and may request such information and documentation as it may deem fit prior to making the proposed change and the change shall only become effective upon the Company accepting the change in writing.

If the Policyholder requests a decrease in the Coverage Sum Assured applicable under this CI Rider, the change shall automatically become effective on acceptance of the change by the Company in writing. The Company may limit the amount of such decrease.

Section Six: Premium

The premium for this CI Rider shall be paid in the amounts and at the intervals (Premium Frequency) and for the term specified in the Schedule. The premium rate is reviewable by the Company after the first 5 Policy Years from Coverage Commencement Date of this Rider with the prior approval of the IRDA. The premium payable may be automatically increased or decreased if the Company accepts the Policyholder's request to change the Coverage Sum Assured as per Section Five above.

Section Seven: Grace Period and Revival

If any premium is not received in full by its due date, then upon the expiry of the Grace Period, the CI Rider shall automatically lapse. If the Critical Illness as defined in the Annexure below occurs during such Grace Period, the Company shall deduct any premium due from the amount payable under this Rider.

The CI Rider may be revived along with the revival of the Base Policy in accordance with the terms of the Base Policy.

Section Eight: Changes to the CI Rider Terms and Conditions

The Company may alter these CI Rider Terms and Conditions and the Coverage conferred hereunder if there is a change in the law or taxation, which affects the Company or the Policy. No change will be made without the prior approval of the IRDA and notice of all changes will be sent to the Policyholder.

If the Policyholder does not agree with the change, the Policyholder may terminate this CI Rider by giving the Company written notice within 30 days of receipt of the Company sending notice of the change.

Section Nine: Exclusions

No payment shall be made in respect of any claim directly or indirectly for, caused by, arising from or in any way attributable to any of the following:
