Subject to any changes notified by the IRDAI or any such body authorised by the Government of India to notify such changes, receipt of regular Premium (excluding outstation cheques or demand drafts) or valid requests for Unit switching, surrender of the Policy, partial withdrawal or benefit payments received at Company's address specified below or at any of Company's branch offices:
 - i) At or before 3:00 p.m. on a particular Business Day will be processed at the closing Unit Price on that Business Day, and
 - ii) After 3:00 p.m. on a particular Business Day will be processed at the closing Unit Price on the next Business Day.
- b. Notwithstanding anything stated above, if any payment received by the Company is in the form of an outstation cheque or demand draft, the payment will be processed at the closing Unit Price on the Business Day of realization of that instrument.

Section Nine: Free Look Period

You have a period of 30 days from the date of receipt of the Policy Document, to review the terms and conditions of the Policy. If you disagree to any of these terms or conditions, you have an option to return the Policy stating the reasons for objection. The Policy will accordingly be cancelled and the Company will refund an amount which shall at least be equal to non-allocated premiums plus charges levied by cancellation of units plus Policy Fund Value at the date of cancellation less Proportionate risk premium for the period on cover, the medical expenses, if any, incurred by the insurer, stamp duty charges and fund value of Guaranteed Additions.

Section Ten: Postponement of Vesting Date

On the date of vesting, the policyholder shall have an option to extend the accumulation period or deferment period within the same policy with the same terms and conditions as the original policy provided the policyholder is below the age of 60 years at the time of exercising this option.

Part E
Charges, Fund Options etc.

Section One: Units and Unit Account

- a. On the Policy Commencement Date, the Company will open a Unit Account for the Policyholder in which Units attributable to all regular Premium and any Top-Up Premium paid by the Policyholder will be allocated, in the fund allocation proportion as specified in the Schedule, to the Funds chosen by the Policyholder and after deduction of applicable Premium Allocation Charges. The fund allocation proportion for any Fund chosen by the Policyholder may range between 1% and 100%. Any Top Up Premium shall be invested in the same fund allocation proportion unless policyholder opts for allocating the Top Up premium in a proportion different from the fund proportion specified in the schedule.
- b. The Policyholder may alter the fund allocation proportion (Premium Redirection) within Defined Portfolio Strategy subject to the following:
 - i) The Policyholder gives prior written notice to the Company of the changes in the fund allocation proportion that he wishes to make.
 - ii) Premium Redirection will only be effective once the Company has confirmed the same.
 - iii) All regular Premium or Top-Up Premiums received after this date will be invested as per the revised mandate till the Policyholder does not change the same.
 - iv) There are no charges or restrictions on number of Premium Redirection during the entire Policy Term
 - v) The Company may revise the minimum fund allocation proportion for any Fund by giving written notice to the Policyholder of not less than three months.

Section Two: Funds

- a. The Funds available for the Policyholder to invest in, their investment objectives and respective risk profile are described in Annexure II.
- b. The Company reserves the right to introduce new Funds, amend the investment objectives of any existing Fund or to close (terminate the Fund and encashment of all Units held in the Fund), withdraw (no further investment from the Policyholder will be accepted into the Fund, but existing Units held in the Fund will continue to exist in that Fund), split or combine existing Funds with the approval of the IRDAI or such other body authorized by the Government of India to approve such changes. The Company shall send written notification to the Policyholder in advance in case of any such change.
- c. Upon the closure of a Fund, the Company will switch the existing Units in that Fund and / or apply any future regular Premium which would have been applied to the Pension Debt Fund. Upon the withdrawal of a Fund, the Company will apply any future regular Premium which would have been applied to that Fund to the Pension Debt Fund. The Policyholder can switch to or opt to apply any future regular Premium to any other available Funds without Charges being applied within three months of the closure or withdrawal of a Fund.
- d. A Fund is composed of Units, which will be created when assets of an equivalent value are added to the portfolio of assets against which the Fund is referenced. The assets and any income arising from these assets shall remain the Company's property at all times and the Policy does not

- e. The price or value of any Unit and Fund will fluctuate depending on the performance of the underlying assets. The Company does not guarantee the price or value of any Units.

Section Three: Defined Portfolio Strategy

Under this option, Policyholder can opt to invest in any of the Funds mentioned in the Schedule (except Discontinued Pension Fund or Liquid Pension Fund) in proportions of his/her choice. Within the defined portfolio strategy, Policyholder also has an option to select Systematic Transfer Plan option (STP) for which Liquid Pension Fund will be available to the Policyholder. The Policyholder can switch monies amongst these Funds using the switch option.

Section Four: Systematic Transfer Plan (STP) Option

- a) Policyholder has an option to exercise STP option for annual mode only. Policies within the Defined Portfolio Strategy at the Policy Commencement Date, for investing the Premium. The Policyholder will have an option to choose STP for 12 months only.
- b) In case the Policyholder opts for STP, the Premium (net of Premium Allocation Charge) will be first allocated to Liquid Pension Fund, and then at the beginning of each Policy Month, a portion will be systematically switched to the Funds chosen by the Policyholder at inception.
- c) At the beginning of every Policy Month, 1/n of units will be transferred from Liquid Pension Fund to other Funds as per the Fund allocation proportion chosen by the Policyholder.
Where n = number of months remaining under the STP scheme.
- d) Once exercised the STP option will be applicable for each of the subsequent Premium every Policy Year.

Section Five: Life Stage Portfolio Strategy

Policyholder will have to opt for this strategy at the inception of Policy. In this investment strategy the investments are distributed between Pension Dynamic Equity Fund & Pension Debt Fund with their proportions varying as per the different life stages. At inception the Funds will be distributed between two Funds, Pension Dynamic Equity Fund and Pension Debt Fund. As and when the next milestone is achieved, the funds will be re-distributed according to the attained Age (age bands) as given in the following table:

Age as on last birthday (last policy anniversary)	Pension Debt Fund	Pension Dynamic Equity Fund
Up to 25	15%	85%
26 – 30	20%	80%
31 – 35	25%	75%
36 – 40	30%	70%
41 – 45	35%	65%
46 – 50	40%	60%
51 – 55	45%	55%
56 and above	50%	50%

PRAMERICA LIFE NextGen Pension Plan
A Unit Linked Non-Participating Individual Savings Pension Plan

Every quarter, the strategy shall be reviewed and rebalanced, if necessary, to achieve above proportions. The rebalancing will be done on the first day of each quarter of the financial year except for the last 12 Policy Months of the Policy. If the first day is a non-Valuation Date then the next working day's NAV will be applicable.

In the last 12 Policy Months, the remaining investments from Pension Dynamic Equity Fund will be systematically transferred to the Liquid Pension Fund in 12 installments.

Section Six: Charges

The Company will levy the Charges in the following manner.

- a. Premium Allocation Charge: NIL, there is no premium allocation charge (on regular Premium or Top-up Premium) in this product.
- b. Policy Administration Charge: NIL, there is no policy administration charge (on regular Premium or Top-up Premium) in this product.
- c. Mortality Charge: This Charge is deducted by cancellation of Units from the Unit Account at applicable Unit Price at the beginning of each Policy Month and is guaranteed not to change. Please refer to Annexure I for details.
- d. Fund Management Charge (FMC): This Charge is levied on a daily basis by adjustment to the NAV. It is reviewable subject to maximum of 1.35% per annum, on prior approval from IRDAI.

- e. Discontinuance Charge: There is no discontinuance charge
- f. Goods and Service taxes as applicable are deducted by cancellation of Units attributable to single/regular Premium Unit Account when the respective facility is used and are subject to change from time to time.

Charges deducted on monthly basis from the Unit Account will be deducted from the Funds held in respect of the regular Premium Unit Account in proportion to the Fund Value at the time of such deduction.

Section Seven: Valuation of Funds and Unit Price

The Unit Price of Units of each Fund shall be determined as per the guidelines issued by the IRDAI or such other body as is authorised by the Government of India to issue such regulations or guidelines from time to time.

Under the following circumstances as determined by the Company, the Company reserves the right to suspend the cancellation or creation of Units.

- i. When one or more stock exchanges that provide a basis for valuation for a substantial portion of the assets of the Funds are closed (other than for ordinary holidays); or
- ii. In case of natural calamities, strike, war, civil unrest, riots and bandhs; or
- iii. If so directed, by the IRDAI or any other applicable regulator.

The Company also reserves the right not to value one or more investment Funds under any of the above circumstances.

As per the current guidelines issued by the IRDAI, the Company will determine the Unit Price of each Fund on each Business Day according to the following formula: -

Unit Price (or NAV) = {market value of investments held by the Fund plus the value of any current assets less the value of any current liabilities and provisions[#], if any} divided by the number of Units existing in the Fund on the Valuation Date (before any new Units are created or redeemed).

[#]Provisions shall include expenses for brokerage and transaction cost, NPA, Fund Management Charges (FMC) and any other charges approved by the IRDAI.

The Unit Price will be rounded by not less than three decimal places.

The Company will make all decisions about the selection and valuation of the assets to which a Fund is referenced.

Mortality charge

At the beginning of each policy month, mortality charge will be deducted from the unit account by way of cancellation of units.

The monthly mortality charge is calculated by multiplying the Sum at Risk (SAR) by the mortality charge rate for the given age/gender as per rates in the table in Annexure 1 above divided by $(12 * 1000)$. Sum at Risk for each variant is defined below:

Plan	SAR
Pramerica Life NextGen Pension Plan	Max (Death Benefit less Fund value of units including top up fund value,0) where death benefit is Max(105% of Total Premiums Paid including top – up premiums, ₹10,000)

Monthly mortality charges for Top-up Sum Assured cover would be calculated by multiplying Top-up Sum at Risk (Top-up SAR) by mortality charge rate for the given age/gender as per rates in the table in Annexure 1 divided by $(12 * 1000)$. Top-Up Sum at Risk for each variant is defined as

Variant	Top-up SAR
Pramerica Life NextGen Pension Plan	Max (Top-Up Death Benefit – Fund Value of Top-up Units,0) where top up death benefit is Max(105%of top up premium paid,0)

Mortality charges are guaranteed for full policy term and are not reviewable.

d. Currency & Territorial Limits

All Premium and any amounts payable under the Policy are payable within India and in the currency of the Policy specified in the Schedule.

e. Governing Law & Jurisdiction

Any and all disputes or differences arising out of or in respect of this Policy shall be governed by and determined in accordance with Indian law and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of Indian Courts.

f. Entire Contract & Agent's Authority

The Policy Document comprises the entire contract between the Policyholder and the Company, and it cannot be changed or altered unless the Company approves it in writing by endorsement on the Schedule and, where required, the approval of the IRDAI has been obtained.

The insurance agent is authorised to arrange the completion and submission of the Policyholder's Application Form. The insurance agent is not authorised to amend the Policy Document, or to accept any notice on the Company's behalf or to accept payments on the Company's behalf. If any money meant for the Company in any form is paid to an insurance agent then such payment is made at the Policyholder's risk and the agent will be acting only as the Policyholder's representative.

g. Taxes

In respect of any payment made or to be made under this Policy, the Company shall deduct or charge taxes including Goods and Services tax as applicable and other levies as applicable from time to time, at such rates as notified by the Government of India or a body authorised by the Government of India from time to time.

Section Seven: Force Majeure

1. As per Schedule I(2)(A)(v) of the IRDAI (Insurance Products) Regulations, 2024, the company will declare a 'Single' Net Asset Value (NAV) for each segregated fund on a day-to-day basis.
2. The company specifies that, in the event of certain force majeure conditions, the declaration of NAV on a day-to-day basis may be deferred and could include other actions as a part of investment strategy (e.g. taking exposure of any Segregated Fund (SFIN) upto 100% in Money Market Instruments [as defined under Schedule III (Part I)(1)(8) of IRDAI (Actuarial, Finance & Investment functions of Insurers) Regulations 2024])
3. The company shall value the Funds (SFIN) on each day for which the financial markets are open. However, the company may value the SFIN less frequently in extreme circumstances external to the company i.e. in force majeure events, where the value of the assets is too uncertain. In such circumstances, the company may defer the valuation of assets for up to 30 days until the company is certain that the valuation of SFIN can be resumed
4. The company shall inform IRDAI of such deferment in the valuation of assets. During the continuance of the force majeure events, all request for servicing the policy including policy related payment shall be kept in abeyance.
5. The company shall continue to invest as per the fund mandates. However, the company shall reserve its right to change the exposure of all or any part of the Fund to Money Market Instruments [as defined under Schedule III (Part I)(1)(8) of IRDAI (Actuarial, Finance & Investment functions of Insurers) Regulations 2024] in circumstances mentioned under points (3 and 4) above. The exposure of the fund as per the fund mandates shall be reinstated within reasonable timelines once the force majeure situation ends
6. Few examples of circumstances as mentioned [in point 3 & 4 above] are:
 - a) When one or more stock exchanges which provide a basis for valuation of the assets of the fund are closed otherwise than for ordinary holidays.
 - b) When, as a result of political, economic, monetary or any circumstances which are not in the control of the company, the disposal of the assets of the fund would be detrimental to the interests of the continuing Policyholders.
 - c) In the event of natural calamities, strikes, war, civil unrest, riots and bandhs.
 - d) In the event of any force majeure or disaster that affects the normal functioning of the company.
7. In such an event, an intimation of such force majeure event shall be uploaded on company's website for information

- V) Insurance Ombudsman:

The office of the Insurance Ombudsman has been established by the Government of India for the redressal of any grievance in respect of life insurance policies.

Any person who has a grievance against an insurer, may himself or through his legal heirs, nominee or assignee, make a complaint in writing to the Insurance Ombudsman within whose territorial jurisdiction the branch or office of the insurer complained against or the residential address or place of residence of the complainant is located.

The complaint shall be in writing, duly signed by the complainant or through his legal heirs, nominee or assignee and shall state clearly the name and address of the complainant, the name of the branch or office of the insurer against whom the complaint is made, the facts giving rise to the complaint, supported by documents, the nature and extent of the loss caused to the complainant and the relief sought from the Insurance Ombudsman.

You may approach the Insurance Ombudsman if your grievance pertains to any of the following:

- a. Delay in settlement of claim beyond the time specified in the regulations, framed under the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India Act, 1999
- b. Any partial or total repudiation of claims
- c. Disputes over premium paid or payable in terms of insurance policy
- d. Misrepresentation of policy terms and conditions
- e. Legal construction of insurance policies in so far as the dispute relates to claim
- f. Policy servicing related grievances against insurers and their agents and intermediaries
- g. Issuance of Life insurance policy, which is not in conformity with the proposal form submitted by the proposer
- h. Non-issuance of insurance policy after receipt of premium
- i. Any other matter resulting from the violation of provisions of the Insurance Act, 1938 or the regulations, circulars, guidelines or instructions issued by the IRDAI from time to time or the terms and conditions of the policy contract, in so far as they relate to issues mentioned at clauses (a) to (f)

No complaint to the Insurance Ombudsman shall lie unless (a) The complainant makes a written representation to the insurer named in the complaint and—

- (i) Either the insurer had rejected the complaint, or
 - (ii) The complainant had not received any reply within a period of one month after the insurer received his representation, or
 - (iii) The complainant is not satisfied with the reply given to him by the insurer
- (b) The complaint is made within one year—
- (i) After the order of the insurer rejecting the representation is received, or

Section 38 - Assignment and Transfer of Insurance Policies (as amended from time to time)

Assignment or transfer of a policy should be in accordance with Section 38 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended by Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015. The extant provisions in this regard are as follows:

1. This policy may be transferred/assigned, wholly or in part, with or without consideration.
2. An Assignment may be effected in a policy by an endorsement upon the policy itself or by a separate instrument under notice to the Insurer.
3. The instrument of assignment should indicate the fact of transfer or assignment and the reasons for the assignment or transfer, antecedents of the assignee and terms on which assignment is made.
4. The assignment must be signed by the transferor or assignor or duly authorized agent and attested by at least one witness.
5. The transfer of assignment shall not be operative as against an insurer until a notice in writing of the transfer or assignment and either the said endorsement or instrument itself or copy thereof certified to be correct by both transferor and transferee or their duly authorized agents have been delivered to the insurer.
6. Fee to be paid for assignment or transfer can be specified by the Authority through Regulations.
7. On receipt of notice with fee, the insurer should Grant a written acknowledgement of receipt of notice. Such notice shall be conclusive evidence against the insurer of duly receiving the notice.
8. If the insurer maintains one or more places of business, such notices shall be delivered only at the place where the policy is being serviced.
9. The insurer may accept or decline to act upon any transfer or assignment or endorsement, if it has sufficient reasons to believe that it is-
 - a. not bonafide or
 - b. not in the interest of the policyholder or
 - c. not in public interest or
 - d. is for the purpose of trading of the insurance policy.
10. Before refusing to act upon endorsement, the Insurer should record the reasons in writing and communicate the same in writing to Policyholder within 30 days from the date of policyholder giving a notice of transfer or assignment.
11. In case of refusal to act upon the endorsement by the Insurer, any person aggrieved by the refusal may prefer a claim to IRDAI within 30 days of receipt of the refusal letter from the Insurer.

12. The priority of claims of persons interested in an insurance policy would depend on the date on which the notices of assignment or transfer is delivered to the insurer; where there are more than one instruments of transfer or assignment, the priority will depend on dates of delivery of such notices. Any dispute in this regard as to priority should be referred to Authority.

13. Every assignment or transfer shall be deemed to be absolute assignment or transfer and the assignee or transferee shall be deemed to be absolute assignee or transferee, except

- a. where assignment or transfer is subject to terms and conditions of transfer or assignment OR
- b. where the transfer or assignment is made upon condition that
 - i. the proceeds under the policy shall become payable to policyholder or nominee(s) in the event of assignee or transferee dying before the insured OR
 - ii. the insured surviving the term of the policy

Such conditional assignee will not be entitled to obtain a loan on policy or surrender the policy. This provision will prevail notwithstanding any law or custom having force of law which is contrary to the above position.

14. In other cases, the insurer shall, subject to terms and conditions of assignment, recognize the transferee or assignee named in the notice as the absolute transferee or assignee and such person

- a. shall be subject to all liabilities and equities to which the transferor or assignor was subject to at the date of transfer or assignment and
- b. may institute any proceedings in relation to the policy
- c. obtain loan under the policy or surrender the policy without obtaining the consent of the transferor or assignor or making him a party to the proceedings

15. Any rights and remedies of an assignee or transferee of a life insurance policy under an Assignment or transfer effected before commencement of the Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015 shall not be affected by this section.

Section 39 - Nomination by policyholder (as amended from time to time)

Nomination of a life insurance Policy is as below in accordance with Section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended by Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015. The extant provisions in this regard are as follows:

1. The policyholder of a life insurance on his own life may nominate a person or persons to whom money secured by the policy shall be paid in the event of his death.
2. Where the nominee is a minor, the policyholder may appoint any person to receive the money secured by the policy in the event of policyholder's death during the minority of the nominee. The manner of appointment to be laid down by the insurer.
3. Nomination can be made at any time before the maturity of the policy.
4. Nomination may be incorporated in the text of the policy itself or may be endorsed on the policy communicated to the insurer and can be registered by the insurer in the records relating to the policy.
5. Nomination can be cancelled or changed at any time before policy matures, by an endorsement or a further endorsement or a will as the case may be.
6. A notice in writing of Change or Cancellation of nomination must be delivered to the insurer for the insurer to be liable to such nominee. Otherwise, insurer will not be liable if a bonafide payment is made to the person named in the text of the policy or in the registered records of the insurer.
7. Fee to be paid to the insurer for registering change or cancellation of a nomination can be specified by the Authority through Regulations.
8. On receipt of notice with fee, the insurer should grant a written acknowledgement to the policyholder of having registered a nomination or cancellation or change thereof.
9. A transfer or assignment made in accordance with Section 38 shall automatically cancel the nomination except in case of assignment to the insurer or other transferee or assignee for purpose of loan or against security or its reassignment after repayment. In such case, the nomination will not get cancelled to the extent of insurer's or transferee's or assignee's interest in the policy. The nomination will get revived on repayment of the loan.
10. The right of any creditor to be paid out of the proceeds of any policy of life insurance shall not be affected by the nomination.

11. In case of nomination by policyholder whose life is insured, if the nominees die before the policyholder, the proceeds are payable to policyholder or his heirs or legal representatives or holder of succession certificate.
12. In case nominee(s) survive the person whose life is insured, the amount secured by the policy shall be paid to such survivor(s).
13. Where the policyholder whose life is insured nominates his
 - a. parents or
 - b. spouse or
 - c. children or
 - d. spouse and children
 - e. or any of them

the nominees are beneficially entitled to the amount payable by the insurer to the policyholder unless it is proved that policyholder could not have conferred such beneficial title on the nominee having regard to the nature of his title.

14. If nominee(s) die after the policyholder but before his share of the amount secured under the policy is paid, the share of the expired nominee(s) shall be payable to the heirs or legal representative of the nominee or holder of succession certificate of such nominee(s).
15. The provisions of sub-section 7 and 8 (13 and 14 above) shall apply to all life insurance policies maturing for payment after the commencement of Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015.
16. If policyholder dies after maturity but the proceeds and benefit of the policy has not been paid to him because of his death, his nominee(s) shall be entitled to the proceeds and benefit of the policy.
17. The provisions of Section 39 are not applicable to any life insurance policy to which Section 6 of Married Women's Property Act, 1874 applies or has at any time applied except where before or after Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act 2015, a nomination is made in favour of spouse or children or spouse and children whether or not on the face of the policy it is mentioned that it is made under Section 39. Where nomination is intended to be made to spouse or children or spouse and children under Section 6 of MWP Act, it should be specifically mentioned on the policy. In such a case only, the provisions of Section 39 will not apply.

Annexure – 'C'

Section 45 – Policy shall not be called in question on the ground of mis-statement after three years (as amended from time to time)

Provisions regarding policy not being called into question in terms of Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended by Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015 and are as follows:

1. No Policy of Life Insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after expiry of 3 years. from
 - a. the date of issuance of policy or
 - b. the date of commencement of risk or
 - c. the date of revival of policy or
 - d. the date of rider to the policywhichever is later.
2. On the ground of fraud, a policy of Life Insurance may be called in question within 3 years from
 - a. the date of issuance of policy or
 - b. the date of commencement of risk or
 - c. the date of revival of policy or
 - d. the date of rider to the policywhichever is later.

For this, the insurer should communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which such decision is based.

3. Fraud means any of the following acts committed by insured or by his agent, with the intent to deceive the insurer or to induce the insurer to issue a life insurance policy:
 - a. The suggestion, as a fact of that which is not true and which the insured does not believe to be true;
 - b. The active concealment of a fact by the insured having knowledge or belief of the fact;
 - c. Any other act fitted to deceive; and
 - d. Any such act or omission as the law specifically declares to be fraudulent.
4. Mere silence is not fraud unless, depending on circumstances of the case, it is the duty of the insured or his agent keeping silence to speak or silence is in itself equivalent to speak

5. No Insurer shall repudiate a life insurance Policy on the ground of Fraud, if the Insured /beneficiary can prove that the misstatement was true to the best of his knowledge and there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer. Onus of disproving is upon the policyholder, if alive, or beneficiaries.
6. Life insurance Policy can be called in question within 3 years on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to expectancy of life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document basis which policy was issued or revived or rider issued. For this, the insurer should communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which decision to repudiate the policy of life insurance is based.
7. In case repudiation is on ground of mis-statement and not on fraud, the premium collected on policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured.
8. Fact shall not be considered material unless it has a direct bearing on the risk undertaken by the insurer. The onus is on insurer to show that if the insurer had been aware of the said fact, no life insurance policy would have been issued to the insured
9. The insurer can call for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof of age of life insured. So, this Section will not be applicable for questioning age or adjustment based on proof of age submitted subsequently.
